

ing & Courier.

MAINE NEWS.

FROM AUGUSTA
LEGISLATIVE CONVENTION—FOURTH DAY
The legislative convention opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the Senate chamber. The assembly was called to order by the President, John J. Ingalls, who presided over the session. The first business was the reading of the minutes of the previous day's session. The assembly then proceeded to the election of a committee to prepare a report on the proposed amendments to the constitution. The committee consisted of Messrs. Ingalls, Morrill, and others. The assembly then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Pomeroy Charged with Bribery.

THE ALLEGED BRIBE MONEY EXCHANGED
POMEROY FAILS TO GET A VOTE!
JOHN J. INGALLS, ELECTED
ABSENT OF POMEROY AND YORK

Exciting Scene in Convention!
The legislative convention opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the Senate chamber. The assembly was called to order by the President, John J. Ingalls, who presided over the session. The first business was the reading of the minutes of the previous day's session. The assembly then proceeded to the election of a committee to prepare a report on the proposed amendments to the constitution. The committee consisted of Messrs. Ingalls, Morrill, and others. The assembly then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN had a meeting at 8 o'clock this afternoon. The agenda included the report of the city engineer on the water supply, and the report of the city treasurer on the city finances. The board then adjourned until next week.

THE WEATHER

THE STATE OF THE MIDDLE
The weather in the middle of the state is generally clear and pleasant. The temperature is in the 60s and 70s. There is a light breeze from the west. The sky is blue with a few wispy clouds.

THE BLOWN UP BUILDINGS

BOSTON, Jan. 30. The City Committee on the explosion at the City Hall, which occurred on the 22nd inst., has today issued a report. The report states that the explosion was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe in the basement of the building. The gas pipe was found to be defective and was replaced. The report also states that the explosion did not cause any serious injuries or damage to the building.

THE BLOWN UP BUILDINGS

BOSTON, Jan. 30. The City Committee on the explosion at the City Hall, which occurred on the 22nd inst., has today issued a report. The report states that the explosion was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe in the basement of the building. The gas pipe was found to be defective and was replaced. The report also states that the explosion did not cause any serious injuries or damage to the building.

THE BLOWN UP BUILDINGS

BOSTON, Jan. 30. The City Committee on the explosion at the City Hall, which occurred on the 22nd inst., has today issued a report. The report states that the explosion was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe in the basement of the building. The gas pipe was found to be defective and was replaced. The report also states that the explosion did not cause any serious injuries or damage to the building.

THE BLOWN UP BUILDINGS

BOSTON, Jan. 30. The City Committee on the explosion at the City Hall, which occurred on the 22nd inst., has today issued a report. The report states that the explosion was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe in the basement of the building. The gas pipe was found to be defective and was replaced. The report also states that the explosion did not cause any serious injuries or damage to the building.

THE BLOWN UP BUILDINGS

BOSTON, Jan. 30. The City Committee on the explosion at the City Hall, which occurred on the 22nd inst., has today issued a report. The report states that the explosion was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe in the basement of the building. The gas pipe was found to be defective and was replaced. The report also states that the explosion did not cause any serious injuries or damage to the building.

